PARENTING TIP OF THE WEEK

Four year old Allie continues to come out of the bedroom after being tucked in. "I'm scared. I need a drink. Tomorrow can we read that book? What if the moon explodes? You're my favorite mommy." Each time this happens Mom stands, smiles, and walks with Allie back to the bedroom, saying: "It's time to stay in bed." A parent does not need to get sucked into a child's endless whirlpool of distractions. A single, calm, repetitive response is the best plan.
