News and Announcements

FROM FR. RAPOPORT

IDAHO CATHOLIC APPEAL | We greatly appreciate all of the donations made towards the Idaho Catholic Appeal. Pledges towards the goal would help with overall budgeting of parish expenses since the parish will need to pay the remaining balance at the end of the year. The diocese wishes to state that “None of the ICA funds can be used for religious misconduct payoffs” and “70% of the Diocese of Boise budget comes from the Idaho Catholic Appeal”. Thank you for your support of our diocese and our parish! <https://www.osvhub.com/diocese-of-boise/giving/funds>

ICA Goal - $134,620.00

Pledged - $19,129.66

Remaining - $115,490.34

PARENTING TIP OF THE WEEK

The goal of a parent is not to order the teen around, but—in the process of forming a responsible young adult—to help the teen discover that poor decisions bring unpleasant consequences. A teen who receives reminders has already disobeyed. There are many ways this can be addressed, but the best way to ruin an effective consequence is to deliver it with anger and frustration.
