News and Announcements

FROM FR. RAPOPORT

- ◆ If you are able to make it to confession during the week we ask that you refrain from going on Sunday in order to make time for those who are not able to go during the week.
- ◆ We have begun some decorative work in the sanctuary. The use of an ornamental altar crucifix that matches the candlesticks is the more typical arrangement for traditional churches. The rubrics call for the crucifix to be placed between the candlesticks in order for the priest to look up at a certain angle to the crucifix during specific moments during Mass. Please see this article for more details about the rubrics: <https://www.ccwatershed.org/2020/03/10/liturgical-custody-of-the-eyes/>

PARENTING TIP OF THE WEEK

A toddler throwing a tantrum can be carried to a calm place (such as a crib) and discover that as soon as her cries have stopped she will be taken out and returned to normal activities. The fewer words spoken by the adult, the better. If the adult sings "uh-oh" while removing the child, odds are increased that the child will someday learn to stop misbehavior as soon as he hears, or even just imagines, that same tune of "uh-oh." - Love and Logic® Institute
